

Ogden Golfers Make Ready to Serve Tee on Green

LOCAL STARS LOOK FORWARD TO BIG SEASON

Grounds at Club Will Be Placed in First Class
Shape for 1922

The golf season is on! Stars of the niblick, brassie and midiron at the Ogden Golf and Country club were out in large numbers Saturday afternoon making preparations for the official opening of the season, it being estimated that more than 35 Ogdenites polished their sticks, donned their knickerbockers and went over the course for the first time during the new season. No 54 scores were turned in, but some of the vets came mighty near in the warming up.

The green is said to be in perfect condition. This report was given out last night by Secretary W. D. Brown. The course is being placed in first class condition for the coming season.

Several members have been at work at the club for the past few days putting the links in shape. Repairs on the club house have also been started. Painting of the club house is to start within the next few days.

Some of the members of the club were "putting" the golf balls out of the vast acreage of ground owned by the club Saturday.

The course at the club will be 100 per cent better than last season, Secretary Brown reports. This is expected to attract more golfers than ever before.

"The road to and from the club is in passable condition," said Secretary Brown last night. "The green will be placed in first class condition immediately."

"It is expected that more than 75 members of the golf club will be out in togs Sunday to enjoy their first efforts at the game since last year. Those who were out Saturday worked out several kinks and are expected to be back on the green Sunday."

GREB THINKS HE'S A VICTIM OF HARD LUCK

By HARRY GREB, Conqueror of Tommy Gibbons.

Some fighters are unfortunate as to their weight.

Pockey McFarland was such a fighter. His best weight was about 137. It was practically impossible for him to make the lightweight limit, which in his case set at 135.

If he carried more than 137 pounds it was of no advantage to him, since at that weight he was at his best. I regard him as much the same light as Pockey McFarland. It is a bit tough for me to make the middleweight limit. I am at my best at about 163.

In the light heavyweight class I am forced to give away from 19 to 20 pounds.

And, of course, if I decide to take on any of the real heavyweights I may be forced to give away as much as 40 or 50 pounds.

If Johnny Wilson didn't run out of his match with me after getting the $20,000 which was being held up because of his bad fight with Bryan Downey I would be wearing the middleweight title today.

I can make 151 pounds, as I had agreed to do for Downey. It requires some effort, but I can make it and be strong. I don't want to appear boastful, but Wilson with his left-hand style, is made to order for me.

If Gibbons had beaten me Wilson might have agreed to take a chance. I don't believe Johnny would not take a chance with his title with me unless someone does him.

Now that I have beaten Gibbons some of the critics say that I should take on Gene Tunney. In a way that is rather funny to me.

When Tunney was mentioned as a possibility for Tommy Gibbons, Tunney's manager said that his fighter wasn't ready for such a game, that in a year or so he would meet Gibbons. Well, I have defeated Gibbons, who was regarded as too tough for Tunney by his manager, so why should I have to meet Tunney?

Fighting, however, is a business with me, and I will meet any fighter in the country if some real promoter offers a worthwhile purse.

Yes sir, I regard myself as an unfortunate fighter. I don't think I am chummy when I say that I am a better fighter than Johnny Wilson or Tunney, yet both of them carry around titles.

Bees Have Keen Infield Sands, Siglin Are Stars

Sands Siglin

When the Salt Lake Bees open their season at home early in April they will present two of the sweetest infielders in the Pacific Coast league in Paddy Siglin and Heinie Sands. These two kents will cavort around shortstop and second base respectively for the Bees and promise to make things hot for both batsmen and baserunners.

Sands has improved every year since he was farmed out to a Three Eye league club and is about the hardest worker on the squad. Although but a midget in size he is being groomed to take home run honors in the loop during the 1922 season.

Sands pulled an unassisted triple play against Sacramento last season at Salt Lake a feat which has been accomplished but three times in coast league history. Besides being a sweet bunter, Sands is also a keen batsman.

Siglin is considered one of the best batsmen in the league. He rides 'em out of the park too on various occasions and hit well over 300 last year.

He is rated as the best second sacker in the coast league and much is expected of him in the new season.

Initial plans for the 1922 gonfalon races in the "A" and "B" sections of the Weber County Farm bureau leagues were discussed at a meeting of representatives of 16 teams held in Ogden late Saturday afternoon. Tentative plans call for sixteen teams in the two loops during the new season.

Fifty-five baseball boosters attended the pow wow. North Ogden and Roy teams of the 1921 league withdrew from the organization, stating that they desired to play outside players.

A committee consisting of Victor Belpas of Hooper, Irving Earl of South Weber, J. Singleton of West Point, L. Brown of Farr West and Henry Alfred of Merriott was named to perfect details.

Another meeting will be held Monday night at which time schedules for the 1922 race will be submitted for approval. It is announced.

FOUR WORLD MARKS IN SWIMMING FALL

PHILADELPHIA, March 25.—John Wiesmuller of the Illinois Athletic club as an attraction added to the intercollegiate swimming championship tournament at the University of Pennsylvania tonight broke four world records for the men's indoor individual junior championship, reducing the time of the 200, 250 and 300-yard and 300-meter events. His time was 2:05 1-5; 2:41 flat; 3:16 3-5 and 3:35 1-5.

KANSAS UNIVERSITY WINS VALLEY MEET

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 25.—Kansas university won the first annual Missouri valley conference indoor track meet here tonight, scoring 38 1-2 points. Nebraska university finished second with 32 2-3, Missouri, third with 23 and Kansas Agricultural college, fourth, with 15 5-6.

Fifth place went to Ames college with five points.

Grinnell college counted three points for sixth place, and Washington university, with one point, finished seventh. Drake university did not place.

Only eight of the nine conference schools participated in the meet, the team from the University of Oklahoma failing to arrive.

DETROIT'S INFELD FORMS COBB'S BIG PROBLEM

GOOD KEYSTONE COMBINATION WILL PUT TIGERS IN RACE

By NEA Service.

AUGUST G. Cobb's immediate baseball future depends upon second base. If the Tigers have developed a combination for the keystone sack, Detroit must seriously be considered in this year's pennant race.

At present chances are that a veteran and a recruit will be to the right and left of this point when the season opens. The recruit is Emory E. Rigney, a slender young man who somewhat resembled Dave Bancroft in build but has the power of a heavyweight.

The veteran second sacker will be either "Pop" Young or George Cutshaw.

THROWING ARM FAILS. Young is a Detroit veteran. Last season he developed a throwing fault which seriously handicapped his team.

Young suddenly became unable at times to throw to first base, losing the ball wildly. He seemed unable to overcome the fault. During the winter months he underwent an operation to his throwing arm and he may be able to rid himself of the weakness.

If Young does not play second base George Cutshaw will. Cutshaw played with Pittsburgh last season. He was Brooklyn's second baseman before Pittsburgh got him. As a member of the Pirates last year he batted .340, the highest average of his career. He was a demon in the pinches.

Cobb signed Cutshaw during the winter to play utility roles for Detroit.

VETERAN STEADIER. Cobb's argument is that a veteran will be of more value in the utility part than a youngster.

Utility infielders are generally called into service in the pinches and a veteran is not likely to make mistakes in the pinches while that will be the time when a youngster is most likely to make them.

Should Young show signs of his former weakness Cutshaw will look after the second basing.

Rigney is probably the best defensive player in the outfit, a new recruit. In practice games Rigney has

WEBER ISSUES SPRING CALL FOR ATHLETES

The initial call for track and field men at the Weber Normal college will be sounded Monday afternoon, Coach Malcolm Sharp announced last night. From the 1921 track team Coach Watson will have the following: Budge, Price, Halverson, Burton, Lofgreen, Taylor and Ely.

Of the new men Anderson, Couch, Jones, Hinkley, Polson, Halliday and numerous others are expected to show a world of class.

Merlin Stevenson, assistant coach and former miler at the University of Utah, will assist Coach Watson in rounding his tracksters in to form.

On the baseball field the Weberites look like contenders for the state title which has been won for the past few years by the East high school. The candidates for the team are as follows: Barnett, first base; Bonham, second; Vest, Cresswell, Halliday, outfielders.

With this array the Weberites should be heard from during the new season. It is expected that more than 80 men will report for the two lines of spring sport.

FARM BUREAU MAKES PLANS

Initial plans for the 1922 gonfalon races in the "A" and "B" sections of the Weber County Farm bureau leagues were discussed at a meeting of representatives of 16 teams held in Ogden late Saturday afternoon.

Tentative plans call for sixteen teams in the two loops during the new season.

Fifty-five baseball boosters attended the pow wow. North Ogden and Roy teams of the 1921 league withdrew from the organization, stating that they desired to play outside players.

TRAP STARS WILL STAGE SHOOT TODAY

Trapshooters of the Ogden Gun club will hold their opening shoot of the 1922 season at their traps west of the Ogden Golf and Country club today, according to an announcement made last night by Secretary E. L. Ford.

More than 20 members of the club are expected to be present.

The trapshooters training the high average today will receive a silver loving cup, donated by the club. The shoot is slated to start at 10:30 a. m. sharp.

Detailed plans for the six registered shoots, which are to be held during the summer months will be explained to the members today.

GLASMANN TO BATTLE NEWBY

Grudge Contest Slated to Take Stage Friday at Wasatch Club

Bill Glasman

Bill Glasman, former middleweight champion boxer of the navy, who will meet Red Newby of Salt Lake in the six-round main event at the Wasatch Athletic club Friday night.

Red Newby, hard hitting Salt Lake middleweight, will not have a chance to show his wares against Bill Glasman of Ogden in the six-round main event at the Wasatch club Friday night.

Promoter Jim Downing announced last night. These two boxers were matched several weeks ago to do battle in a six-round contest, but the fight was postponed at the final moment on account of illness to Glasman.

Since that time Newby has carried a grudge, stating that Glasman had "run out" on him. The Salt Lake has been training faithfully for the contest and states that he is ready to give the fans of Ogden the best battle of his career.

Glasman, since recovering from his illness, has been training faithfully for the scrap and is now in the pink of condition. Bill states that he is ready for a tough battle, but will be prepared at all times to meet the fast onrush of the Salt Lake.

The Glasman-Newby contest promises to be one of the slam-bang order with give and take ruling.

In a four-round semi-windup, Jack Marron of Butte, recently signed to act as a sparring partner for Joe Dempsey, will meet Sam Latimer of Salt Lake. Marron will depart for Los Angeles next Saturday to join Dempsey. He tips the Fairbanks at 215 pounds and should be able to give Latimer a nifty beating.

Future peppy events will be listed on the card also. Promoter Downing announced last night.

UTAH TO HAVE THREE LEADERS

Fitzpatrick, Maddock and Prouse Will Handle Athletic Plans

(Special Dispatch.)

SALT LAKE, March 25.—Athletics at the University of Utah are due for a big boost in 1922 and 1923, if the present outlined plans can be carried out. The athletic council, "C" men, and the officials of the University of Utah have been working during the last two years to develop a plan for the future athletics on the hilltop and the outlined plans will be to have Joe Maddock, former athletic coach at the University of Utah from 1904 to 1909, as athletic director of the University of Michigan, as manager of athletics and advisory coach. Along with this title, the plan is to have Tommy Fitzpatrick, present athletic coach, as athletic director of all competitive teams and Leland Prouse as graduate manager. Titles mean little to the success of athletics, but these three men could work together to give the university just the kind of an athletic organization that is needed.

Fitzpatrick and Prouse have worked hard in hand during the last year and athletics have gone on fairly well, but the addition of Joe Maddock will bring some of the older men back of athletics at the state school and Joe can also work hard to get the business interests of Salt Lake to look at the state school in a little different light than they have in the past. The many organizations in Salt Lake can be brought closer to the university and Joe is just the man to pay this thing over as he has the necessary spirit to do it. In the athletic way, Joe can lend valuable aid to athletics on the hill, especially in football.

Most of the school's football team of the school of the Rocky mountain conference have two or three coaches in football and Utah should have the same as it takes more than one man to coach football at such a large school as the University of Utah.

FANS MISLED.

Many have been led to believe by previous articles that there is to be a big change in the athletic department on the hill, but this is not the case and it is the plan to have these three men in charge of the big athletic program for 1922 and 1923.

The main factor that stands in the way of carrying the present plan through is finances. At present the salary of the athletic coach is paid by the university and that of graduate manager is paid by the athletic council. It is going to be put this money into the athletic activities at the university and just where the additional money for the extra man is to come from is a question at present. Many things have been thought of, but nothing definite has been put over.

The executive committee of the "C" men will meet Tuesday with the university athletic council to decide upon some plan for raising more funds to see this thing put over and if successful, Utah will have one of the strongest coaching staffs in the Rocky mountain conference.

PIT SPORT OVER.

With the support over of the backers of the three men mentioned above, Utah will stand out as one of the leaders in athletics in the intermountain region and the Crimson teams should be near the top of the ladder in all branches. Unity and harmony must be had in athletics if the competitive teams are to be winners and the triumvirate mentioned above should be able to put it over for the University of Utah.

PLAYERS ENJOY SUN BATH

Sun baths are the popular thing with the ball players now working out in the sunny south.

That is what it is, the sunny south when it isn't raining.

In the picture can be seen Hinkle Haines, Bobby Roth, Wilson Fewster and Lefty O'Doul enjoying a sun bath while waiting for their time at bat, at the Yankees' training camp in New Orleans.

Evidently the sun must have gone down on the Yankees' training camp, for Bobby's head. Although the season is still a month distant both the Yankees and the Red Sox are already being suspended for breaking training rules.
